WE BUILD THE BEST

QUALITY STATEMENT

Mark Millman Marine has established a strong customer base and a high level of recognition amongst its peers. In an industry as competitive as West Australian boat building, this can only be achieved through dedication to quality.

By working to a detailed set of plans drawn up in accordance with the project brief and approved by the customer, Mark Millman Marine will ensure the continuity of workflow while at the same time insuring against financial loss by maintaining appropriate insurance cover, shortages of supply by identifying problem supply items and ordering them well in advance, down time through accidents and industrial dispute by careful and continued implementation of our productivity, quality and safety procedures as described in our employee induction booklet.

By providing regular progress reports a harmonious working relationship with the customer will be achieved.

It is policy Mark Millman Marine maintain a quality system in accordance with AS/NZS 9001:2000 and industry developed systems and standards of best practice for the design, construction and supply of product.
